

Year 5 Learning Update

Friday, 7th July

Why don't you ask me about my learning this week? We have done lots of things that include:

Maths	Solves area word problems.
English	Researched Highwaymen, created illustrations for the first 2 stanzas of Alfred Noyes' poem—The Highwayman, looking for poetic features in the first half of the Highwayman poem. Writing Assessment—The March Hare and The Dormouse who came to tea.
History	Who was Dr Edward Jenner? How did his discovery change modern medicine?
PE	Swimming, Cricket & Tennis
Music	Practicing for our end of year play!
Art	Drawing death as a person in the style of Gustav Klimt
Play	Rehearsals!
Odd Bits and Pieces	Sports Day! Reading Café Art session at Newmarket Academy

We have been here, there and everywhere this week! We have had something a bit different happening everyday. We have been rehearsing, competing, reading & crafting and visiting the Academy. It's fair to say we were all a bit disappointed that we didn't get to make a cookie yesterday morning, but it is nice that the work we produced will be put on display in the large hall at the Academy.

We had a brilliant rehearsal yesterday afternoon—the play is really coming together. Play t-shirts that had been paid for came home yesterday. We still have a few that haven't been paid for. They are here! Children need to wear these on Tuesday morning for the dress rehearsal. If you didn't buy a play t-shirt, your child needs to wear a plain grey or black t-shirt.

Next week is another very busy week!

Monday: Transition afternoon!

Tuesday: Dress rehearsal of our play to the school.

Thursday: Performing our play to parents TWICE! Afternoon performance at 1:30 and Evening performance at 6pm

Friday: Transition morning & last swimming session!

Have a lovely weekend,

Miss Rutter, Mrs Grosvenor and Mrs Marsh.
